Legislature of Maine.

Friday, Jan 25.

Messrs. Tolman, Robinson and Binkley were appointed a Joint Special Committee on the part of the Senate, from the House, to consider as much of the Governor's Message as relates to railroad communication in Piscataquis county.

On motion of Mr. Tate,

Ordered that the Committee on the subject be authorized to acquire into the expediency of amending sec. 16, chas 81, of the Revised Statutes, so that the limitation of et cetera, shall apply to trustees.

Bill to incorporate the Lake Umbagog company passed to be engrossed.

James H. Butler was unanimously elected

Major General of the 1st Division with concurrent with the Senate. He received 89 votes.

Mr. McCullough from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to make valid the designs of St. James Parish, (Maine), and for the continuance of the same, which bill was twice read and to-morrow assigned.

Passed to be engrossed—An act to provide in part for the expenditures of Government, to change the names of certain persons.

Editors of the Transcript referred—Of Edwin Flye and 120 others, citizens of Danvers, Mass., and Newcastle, or repeal of Personal Liberty bill, Samuel Fessenden, and 43 members of the Cumberland bar, for increase of salary of Judges of S. J. Court, C. A. Sawyer and others, of Rockport, for repeal of Personal Liberty Law.

The New York Herald has the following in regard to the muskets seized by the police of that city.

"These weapons, it appears, were manufactured for the British Government at Windsor, Vt., but rejected as unserviceable. Subsequently they were sent to the Ordnance Office, and by one of the Mexican factions, they were again rejected and thrown on the hands of the manufacturers. They then fell into the possession of one of our leading banking concerns, and finally after the passage of the act, they were sent to the Ordnance Office of the State of Georgia, and it was while they were being shipped pursuant to his order that they were seized by our Metropolitan police."
